

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I, _____, the author responsible for the manuscript entitled _____ state for all due purposes that neither of the authors of this study has any kind of interest that constitute a Conflict of Interest.

I certify that the manuscript did not receive any financial support from any commercial source, and that neither of the authors nor their first-degree relatives has any involvement in an entity with financial interest in the subject matter discussed in the manuscript. Otherwise, I specify here in below any association that may represent conflict of interest that the authors and I or our first-degree relatives may have had in the last five years with any private companies and/or organizations, even if nonprofit able — including, but not limited to: development of software, appliances, treatment laboratory techniques, equipment, devices or technologies, consulting companies and/or lectures, intellectual property, shareholding, patent licensing.